About Property

Passively invests in the listed property markets in Australia and other developed economies

Property is a growth asset that generally provides high long term returns. Property provides returns through both rental income and capital growth and allows investors to diversify a growth asset portfolio. It invests in Australia and other developed economies. Investments include commercial, industrial and retail property, such as office blocks, warehouses, shopping, centres and factories.

Who is Property suitable for?

Suitable for people who wish to invest their super for five or more years.

i The international investments in this investment option are currency hedged. Currency hedging, which involves selling the international currency and buying the Australian dollar, reduces the currency volatility of this option's international investments.

At times we may hold a small part of this investment option in cash. This is a standard investment administration process to:

- set aside money to invest with our managers.
- manage cash outflows, such as benefit payments, without having to cash in an investment.

Property's Standard Risk Measure^

Property's risk level is high. The table below shows the estimated number of annual negative returns over any 20 year period. These negative returns can be experienced several years apart or several years in a row within the 20 year period.

What's the investment return objective?

Before investment fees and relevant superannuation taxes, to track the return of a composite benchmark comprising 50% FTSE EPRA / NAREIT Developed ex Australia Rental Index (hedged) & 50% FTSE EPRA / NAREIT Australia Index.*

What's the FTSE EPRA / NAREIT Developed ex Australia Rental Index and the FTSE EPRA / NAREIT Australia Index#?

These indices measure the performance of listed property securities. The FTSE EPRA / NAREIT Developed ex Australia Rental Index tracks changes in the value of securities in different global listed property markets. Each market receives a weighting based on its size or market capitalisation. The FTSE EPRA / NAREIT Australia Index# tracks the performance of Australian listed property trusts.

What's the minimum time you should invest in Property?

At least five years.

How has Property performed?

What to look for in investment performance?

As Property is a growth asset, investors should expect higher long term returns along with some low or even negative returns over the short term. Short term performance can vary. It's important to focus on long term performance and your investment time frame.

 Past performance isn't necessarily an indication of future performance.

[^] We've measured risk using the super industry's Standard Risk Measure so you can compare investment options between different funds. The Standard Risk Measure describes risk based on the number of negative annual returns expected over any 20 year period. It's calculated using a simulated model that takes into account factors that may affect returns. This isn't a complete assessment of investment risk, as it doesn't show the size of negative returns, whether you'll meet your investment objective or the impact of fees and taxes on your returns. You need to be comfortable with the risk and potential losses of your chosen investment options. Visit mine.com.au for more information about the Standard Risk Measure, the Trustee's risk assessment methodology and other types of investment risk.
